

Arms Transfers Dialogue (ATD) Meeting Series

Diversion of Arms

1 February 2017

Room XXV, United Nations Office at Geneva

13:00 – 13:30 Opening Remarks

Jarmo Sareva, Director, United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research (UNIDIR)
Eric Berman, Director, Small Arms Survey
Ambassador Klaus Korhonen, President of the Third Conference of States Parties to the Arms Trade Treaty (ATT)
Dumisani Dladla, Head of the ATT Secretariat

13:30 – 14:15 Session 1: Framing the Issue

What is diversion? Issues, scope and frameworks to address diversion
Glenn McDonald, Senior Researcher, Small Arms Survey
Mechanisms to address diversion: Examining end use and end user controls
Himayu Shiotani, Project Manager, UNIDIR
Questions and discussion

14:15 – 15:15 Session 2: Moderated Discussion

This interactive, moderated discussion will explore a wide range of issues associated with the diversion of conventional arms, such as:

- What measures are effective for addressing diversion?
- What are the main challenges in preventing diversion?
- What type of information could be shared between States to prevent diversion?
- What forms of assistance could be useful for States in order to address diversion?
- How might instruments beyond the ATT help to address diversion?

15:15 – 15:30 Session 3: Next Steps and Closing Remarks

Reflections from the President of the Third Conference of States Parties to the ATT
Ambassador Klaus Korhonen, President of the Third Conference of States Parties to the ATT
Reflections from the ATT Secretariat
Dumisani Dladla, Head of the ATT Secretariat
Next steps for the ATD
Eric Berman, Director, Small Arms Survey

The Arms Transfers Dialogue (ATD) provides a forum to explore options and approaches to support multilateral processes on conventional arms control, including small arms and light weapons. It is a joint initiative of the Small Arms Survey and the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research.