

PIR Center-UNIDIR Lunchtime Panel Event

Nuclear Nonproliferation and Disarmament: Where to after the 2015 NPT Review Conference?

CD Council Chamber, Thursday 18th June 2015, 13h-15h

The Nuclear Non-proliferation Treaty (NPT) is widely considered to be a cornerstone of international security. In May 2015, its 191 states party failed to agree an outcome at their five-yearly Review Conference in New York. Where does the 2015 failure leave nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation efforts, and what lies ahead?

A sandwich lunch will be served for participants outside the Council Chamber from 12h45

13:15-13:25: Welcome by co-moderators Mr. Albert Zulkharneev (PIR Center)
Mr. Jarmo Sareva (UNIDIR)

13:25-14:05: Panel discussion

- Dr. Vladimir Orlov (PIR Center)
- Mr. Andrey Baklitskiy (PIR Center)
- Dr. Rebecca Johnson (Acronym Institute)
- Dr. John Borrie (UNIDIR)

14:05-14:50: Q&A discussion with the audience

14:50-15:00: Final remarks and closing of meeting by co-moderators